

 OrPTI's 21st
Annual Conference

rise

respect, inspire, support & educate

 Scholarships are available!!

April 30th - May 1st, 2010

Salem Conference Center

200 Commercial St. Salem, Oregon

Session Topics Include:

Occupational Therapy; Autism & Social Engagement; Nutrition; Civil Rights/504;
Oregon Diploma Options; Understanding Dispute Resolution; Reading;
Teaching Healthy Sexuality Skills; Don't Just Sit There! Discover Diabetes;
Wheelchairs or Not—Give it a Whirl!;
Postsecondary and Job Assessment; Early Intervention,
Positive Behavioral Interventions & Strategies, and many more!!

Keynote Speakers:

Friday, April 30, 2010

Oregon State Representative Sara Gelsler

<http://www.leg.state.or.us/gelsler/>

Saturday, May 1, 2010

Laurie Olson, Mother of Logan Olson of Logan Magazine

<http://www.loganmagazine.com/stories/logan.html>

Early Bird Registration Ends April 18th
Parents $150.00 / Professionals $175.00
Cost includes: registration & meals!

Contact OrPTI: 1-888-505-2673 or info@orpti.org
www.orpti.org/RISE2010

In Partnership with
Oregon Department of Education,
Office of Student Learning & Partnerships,
Swindells Child Disability Resource Center
Juntos Podemos Family Center

We strive to respect, inspire, support and educate, parents of children with disabilities, and the professionals who work with them, keeping a positive focus on students' abilities.

Oregon PTI is an equal opportunity organization in all services and employment.